PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

IT GIVES ALMOST INSTANT EFFECT

Mrs. ALLIE L. N. HISCOCK.
"Do You Wonder I Am a Grateful Woman?"—Paine's Celery Compound Made Her Well in Four Days.

"I had been subject to spells of nervous exhaustion, lasting from a few weeks to two or three months. I was so tired all the time, and the least exertion took my strength. Often in the daytime I had terribly sleepy spells. And yet I could not restful sleep, and my nights were often sleepless till near morning. I tried Paine's Celery Compound. To my intense surprise, after taking it for four days I felt very well. Do you wonder I am a grateful woman? I still use the medicine sometimes if I find I am getting nervous, or not sleeping well. It never fails to help me." Mrs. Allie L. N. Hiscock, North Adams, Mass., Jan. 17, '04.

Lover Angered at Her Refusal to Marry Him.

Peoria, Ill., May 16.—While her father, Len D. Howell, and family were away from their home, near Yates City, yesterday, Mrs. Howell, his 17-year-old daughter, went riding with William Louden, who, it is said, had been forbidden the house. He went to her room, and when she refused, it is alleged, fatally shot her. The girl claimed the shooting was accidental until informed there was no hope of recovery, when she weakened and told the story. Louden made no effort to escape, and was taken to the Knox County Jail at Galesburg for safe keeping this morning. It's in the make, says H. A. Hesse, Taylor, Ill. Pine.

CATCHES ALLEGED SWINDLER ON CAR.

Mrs. George A. Newcomb Charges Well-Dressed Stranger With Obtaining $10 Through Confidence Game.

While returning to her home on a Suburban car yesterday afternoon, Mrs. George A. Newcomb of No. 6700 Glenwood avenue caused the arrest of Charles Smith, who claims to be a traveling salesman from New Orleans, and who visited Mrs. Newcomb's home on Sunday afternoon, and, by representing himself to be a customer of the Newcomb Bros. Wall Paper Company, is alleged to have swindled her out of $10.

A warrant will be applied for against Smith to-day. He admits getting the money from Mrs. Newcomb.

According to Mrs. Newcomb's report to the police, a well-dressed man, who came to her home Sunday afternoon. He gave the name of A. Barden.

Barden told Mrs. Newcomb that he was a customer of the wall paper firm, and that he had just received a long-distance telephone message from his home in Jackson, Miss., that his wife was very ill. He asked her that he was very ill. He asked her that he was very ill. He asked her that he was very ill.

From the hotel, Mrs. Newcomb went to her husband's place of business. There she examined the firm's books and found that they had no customer by the name of Barden.

After telling her husband about the affair and taking the matter over with him, Mrs. Newcomb telephoned a Suburban car to go to her home.

When the car was near Sarah street she saw the alleged Barden in the rear of the car. Patrolman McManis of the Sixth District was a passenger in the car, and arrested Barden at Mrs. Newcomb's request.

At the Mounted District Police Station the prisoner gave his name as Charles Smith. He said that he had been in St. Louis about three weeks.

VOTE ON THE METHODIST BISHOPS NOT ANNOUNCED.
Conference Delegates Feel Sure, However, That Five Have Been Retired—Amusement Laws.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 16.—Contrary to expectation, the result of the secret ballot taken last Saturday by the Methodist general conference on the subject of retirement of Bishops Andrews, Malabier, Vincent, Walden and Fox was not made public at today's session of the conference.

Instead, the result was ordered to be announced by publication in to-morrow morning's issue of the Christian Advocate, which is the official organ of the conference.

The amusement question also came up for further discussion at this morning's session. Doctor Elliott of Detroit presented a resolution recommending that there be doubt in the minds of many of the delegates as to the constitutionality of paragraph 28 of the constitution of the conference, which provides for the retirement of Bishops.

After much debate the resolution was voted down.

GLAD THAT HER BULLETS DID NOT HIT BURGLARS.
Mrs. John McCauley Shoots at Two Robbers Who Fail to Secure Anything in Her Home.

Awakened by a noise in her kitchen at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. John McCauley of No. 439 North Market street arose from her bed, procured her revolver and rushed downstairs to ascertain the trouble.

As she noiselessly opened the kitchen door Mrs. McCauley saw two men climbing into a window. Without waiting to count the consequences, Mrs. McCauley fired two shots point-blank at the burglars.

As both men ran with full speed out the back gate and made good their escape, Mrs. McCauley believed she had secured a victory. "They were not hurt, and while I may say I felt a little nervous at first, I was not badly frightened," Mrs. McCauley was unable to give a description of the burglars.

INDIAN BAND BARRED BY MUSICIANS' UNION.

Results of Labor Organization Results in Abandonment of Concerts by Redmen.

The action of the Musicians' Union of St. Louis has resulted in the abandonment, for the present, of concerts by the Indian Band on the terrace of the Administration building at the World's Fair.

The members of the Indian Band do not belong to the Musicians' Union, and therefore are not eligible to make melody within the precincts of the Exposition grounds.

It was stated yesterday that the Indian Band will be utilized on the Government Terrace as soon as the band stand at that point is completed. The laws of the Musicians' Union cannot prevail, it is said, on that portion of the World's Fair grounds which is assigned to the exhibits of the United States Government.

It has developed that a stringent order of the Musicians' Union prevented the Philippine Constabulary Band from participating in the opening ceremonies at the World's Fair. The Constabulary Band, not being a union organization, could not participate with union bands.

The Philippine Scout Band was allowed to participate on the ground that it preceded the battalion of Philippine Scouts, a United States military organization.

JUDGE GOODWIN TAKES HOLD.
New Department Official Confers With the President.

Washington, May 16.—Judge Russell P. Goodwin of Aurora, Ill., the newly-appointed Assistant Attorney General for the Post-Office Department, who arrived in Washington last night, assumed charge of the duties of his new office this morning.

Judge Goodwin spent part of the day in conference with President Roosevelt and Postmaster General Payne. The President outlined to Mr. Goodwin his general duties, and the Postmaster General outlined to him his duties in conference with Judge Goodwin.

It is probable that Judge Goodwin will not have anything to do with cases which already have been prepared, but he will have to deal with the cases brought out by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General and his inspectors.

REVIEWS FIRST REGIMENT.

Militiamen Drill for Benefit of New Commanding Officer.

Colonel Frank D. McKenna reviewed the First Regiment of the National Guard of Missouri at the Armory last night for the first time since assuming command. The spectators thought that the esprit corps manifested by officers and men alike showed the improvement that has taken place in the regiment since its reorganization.

Colonel Sinclair was present with the battalion of Moolah Shrine of Ancient Arabic Nobles, and he and his command shared in the honors of the evening. Despite the rain the Exposition building contained 2,000 admirers of the regiment.

In the boxes were several regular army officers, Lieutenant J. C. Monasterio and Lieutenant M. Garcia Lago of the Mexican Caudillo, and several other army officers in the Mexican Army; and Captain McCulloch, general manager of the Transit Company. Many women also occupied the boxes.

Guard mount and company drills made up the early part of the program, preceding dress parade.

The regiment was divided into three battalions. Captain F. R. Lattimore being in charge of the First, Captain A. L. Boyce of the Second and Samuel Rosenfield of the Third. Assistant Surgeon Kimball, Captain Robinson, the Quartermaster, and Lieutenant Adjutant W. H. Cooke also participated.

RECALL GREAT FIRE OF 1849.
Veteran Volunteer Firemen Meet, Tell Stories and Elect Officers.

Members of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association met at the rooms at Sixteenth and Locust streets Sunday to commemorate the anniversary of the great St. Louis fire of May 17, 1849.

Short addresses were made by A. R. Hyatt, Judge Rosenberger of Montgomery, Cal., Mo., and several other of the older firemen who witnessed the fire. This yearly meeting, as usual, took the form of a smoker, and reminiscences of the most destructive fire the city has known were recalled. The fire of 1849 started on the steamer White Cloud, and devastated the levee. The loss was more than $11,000,000. The funeral election was also held, at which the old officers were re-elected. They are Joseph Boyce, president; P. J. Pauly, vice president, and Frank M. Brooks, secretary.
